

"Don't shed a tear"

Don't shed a tear
Life pass you by
If all you do is cry

Don't shed a tear
I know he's gone
But he's not the only one

I've been watching you
Four years
I've wasted my life away
And "I know"
Is all that you can say

Well don't shed a tear
I don't want to see
It rolling down your face

You put yourself here
By skipping me
And putting him in place.

I've been wanting you
Four years
I've gotten used to pain
But "I know"
Doesn't take it away.

I still want you.
Daytime sitting
Thinkin about your face.

In another year,
probably be him
not me you'll be near.

But don't shed a tear
Four years
I've gotten used to fear.
So "Will you"
Does not pass from my lips.

Hey Kate,

You know I love you.

What does this mean?

Love,

Dennis
