

I CAN'T SING

Look up little darlin, it ain't that very bad Cheer up little darlin, don't be that very sad
 I could sing you a song about love and life that'd make you feel o.k.

I could sing you a song little girl that'd carry your pain away.

Chorus:

Oh But I can't sing
 I can't hold a melody
 I can't hit the high notes
 I can't carry a tune
 I can't sing
 I can't hit the low notes
 I can't even hum

I look in your eyes and there cryin real hard and I want to do my best.

To sing you a song about sorrow losing to happiness
 AND there's pain in your voice and sadness in your words
 AND I want to sing you a tune.

About A little girl who found happiness starrin at the man in the moon.

Chorus

It's sunny outside but there's rain in your eyes and I'm sorry little girl

I'd like to play you a jitty that I wrote about the world
 You see in that little song there's a lot of love that I would really like to share

But there's a little problem, little girl, that exists in there but hey, maybe you won't even care... Chorus
