

"I dream of you"

It's been seven long years since I saw your face
Since the razor passed through my veins
So I guess I'm here and your still alive
I dream of you and it brings me pain

And now the rain drips through my coffin shell
I guess I now believe there really is a hell
It's just another rainy day without you (I dream of you)
I think I'd cry if I only could

I don't a have single picture of you
Or a person's voice to sooth my pain
All I can feel is my slowly wrotting skin
And the hurt the comes from dreaming of you

If I could move my lips I would sing a song
Or if I had arms I would dig my way to you
It's just another rainy day without you (I dream of you)
I think I'd die if I only could

You were in my bed with another man
I think that's what finally did me in
You see, I sat and thought of losing you
I thought until my nerves finally wore through

And so I ran to the bathroom to end it all
I'd do it again if I thought I would die
It's just another rainy day without you (I dream of you)
And I hope you to die too

There's thing I'd like you to know - I blame you.
