

It's ten till two
& there's nothin to do
~~And~~ I'm here alone, thinkin' bout you.

We used to walk in the park
Hold hands in the dark
Now All I ~~have~~ got is my bottle & my thoughts

Well, Dammit, where are you?
AND God Dammit where'd you go?
I just want to know.

I see the places
Where we used to put our faces
They're empty & so is my heart.

I see the home where
Where you said we would roam
Before you took your stuff and ran.

Well dammit where are you?
AND God Dammit where'd you go.
I just want to know

I cry myself to sleep
And I can't hardly eat
I wanna know what the fuck went wrong.

Well I scream to the night
AND I get no reply.
AND you, you didn't even leave a note.

Well dammit, where are you?
AND God dammit, where'd you go
